Mission and Goals

It is the mission of the State's Attorney's Office (SAO) to prosecute those who break the law, effectively ensuring that crime is met with punishment while providing services to victims of crimes.

Goals include:

- Prosecute criminal cases effectively while showing compassion and providing services to those who find themselves victims of crime.
- Seek restitution to attempt to make victims whole.
- Secure incarceration for individuals who commit crimes.
- Protect individuals from further criminal activity.

Description

The Carroll County SAO is a governmental entity responsible for the prosecution of all crimes that occur in Carroll County which represent violations of either State or local law. The SAO prosecutes all criminal misdemeanor and felony cases, including assault, child abuse, malicious destruction, theft, robbery, rape, sexual offenses, burglary, murder, automobile manslaughter and various other criminal activities. The SAO also prosecutes individuals charged with serious traffic offenses, such as driving while intoxicated or with a suspended license.

The State of Maryland Constitution and the Annotated Code of Maryland mandate the SAO. These obligations are expanded and defined further by the Maryland Rules of Criminal Procedure, as well as State, Federal and Supreme Court decisions. The SAO specialized units are either responsible or assist in the prosecution of certain cases. State's Attorney's Specialized Units include Domestic Violence, Drug Enforcement, Carroll County Advocacy and Investigation Center, Victim Services, Juvenile Crime, Drug Education/Awareness, the Child Support Collection Unit and Career/Specialist Prosecution.
