JURY SERVICE: YOUR RIGHT, YOUR COURTS, YOUR COMMUNITY, YOUR RESPONSIBILITY

The keystone of the justice system in the United States is the right to a trial by jury. The United States Constitution and Maryland's Declaration of Rights guarantee this right. The right to a jury trial has a long history. It was part of the civil liberties granted by King John of England on June 15, 1215, and was recorded in the document known as the Magna Carta. Trial by one's peers was designed to prevent too much power being in the hands of the king.

If you have a drivers' license or have obtained an identification card through the Motor Vehicle Administration, or are a registered voter, you are eligible to be selected for jury service. Your first reaction may be to think of all the ways that such service will burden or inconvenience you and to search for excuses to use in an attempt to get off the jury.

Before you go any further in considering excuses, think seriously about your decision. This is your court system. If you ever go to court on a serious matter, it will most likely be right here. A wise man once said: "If you need a big job done, get only a busy man or woman to do it." Many of our most qualified jurors are busy people, greatly inconvenienced by jury service. But the quality of justice in your court will never be any better than the composite intelligence and wisdom of your juries.

We in the court system will try to make your experience as pleasant as possible. Most who appear say that they are glad they were selected--that they learned about, and have more confidence and pride in their court system. Also, at the end of your service, you will have the satisfaction of knowing that you did your part to bring justice among your fellow citizens in your time. We look forward to seeing you and trying to make this true for you.

No requests will be considered without your signature and the necessary documentation. If you are providing this information for someone other than yourself, please sign and date the form, and indicate your relationship to the person.

8. What if I have employment or child-care issues:

The laws of Maryland do not provide for excusal from jury service due to employment or child-care issues.

9. How was I selected for jury service?

Carroll County residents are selected at random from a merged list of registered voters, licensed drivers and persons with an MVA identification card. No one can volunteer for jury service.

A Summons/Juror Qualification Form is mailed to you and you must supply the information requested on the front and back of the form and sign and date it; return the completed form to the Jury Commissioner's office. Before returning the Juror Qualification Form, detach the summons. You must bring it with you on your first reporting date.

10. How long is my jury service?

Trial Jury Service - In Carroll County, your term of service is one week. You may have to report more than once during your term and you could be selected to sit on more than one jury during your term.

From 8:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m., you will receive an overview of the jury process from the Jury Commissioner and view an orientation film. Court usually begins at 9:30 a.m. Prospective jurors are taken into the courtroom at this time and jury selection begins immediately. If you are not selected to sit on a jury, as soon as the jury is impaneled, you may be dismissed for the day.

If you are selected and the trial lasts a day, you are here until the verdict is reached. If you are selected for a trial lasting two or more days, the Judge will indicate when you will finish for the day and what time you should report the next day.

Grand Jury Service - In Carroll County, twenty-three persons are selected at random to serve as grand jurors, plus three alternates. Grand jurors meet one day a month for six months, usually the first Thursday of the month. Unlike petit jurors, grand jurors are given a schedule of the days they are to report. The length of a grand juror's day depends on how many matters the State's Attorney has to bring before the grand jury and how long it takes the jurors to decide if a person should be indicted or not.

11. What is the difference between a Trial Juror and a Grand Juror?

Grand jurors determine whether there is probable cause to charge someone with a crime. A grand jury also can conduct its own investigations. A trial juror sits, listens to evidence in a courtroom and determines a person's guilt, innocence, or other matters.

12. What happens if I fail to appear on the day I am to appear?

Carroll County takes jury service very seriously. If you fail to appear when the recorded message indicates, you may receive a Show-Cause Order delivered to your home by the Sheriff's constable that will direct you to appear before the Jury Judge and you could receive a fine of not more than $1000.00 and/or 60 days in jail.

13. Do I get paid for my service?

In Carroll County, you are paid $15 a day for your service. If you serve on a jury that takes more than five days, your pay for the sixth and consecutive days is $50 a day.

14. Does my employer have to pay me when I report for jury service?

At this time, your employer does not have to pay you when you report for jury service. However, your employer must allow you to attend jury service without jeopardizing your employment.

15. Is childcare or elder care provided?

The Circuit Court does not provide these services.

16. Where do I park?

17. If I have a legitimate reason why I cannot serve for my assigned term or if I have a health issue, what should I do?

You must submit a letter with your completed Juror Qualification Form explaining your situation. If possible, the Jury Commissioner will select a mutually acceptable date for you to serve at that time. If you are able to serve but have some special needs, let the Jury Commissioner know and the Court will try to accommodate you. If you ignore your summons, you may be found in contempt after a hearing and sentenced up to 30 days in jail and/or a $1000.00 fine.

18. What am I allowed to do while I wait to be selected on a jury?

While you are waiting to go into the courtroom, you may read, work on a laptop computer (public internet connection not available), or just relax. Since your wait in Carroll County is usually not a long one, you may not have time to do anything before going into the courtroom.

19. Am I permitted to bring a cell phone or other technology to court?

Cell phones or other technology are permitted in the jury assembly room but you may not receive incoming calls. Once you go into the courtroom, these devices must be turned off.

20. What if my family has an emergency while I am on a jury and I can't use my cell phone?

If your family must reach you while you are sitting on a jury, they may call the main bailiff desk at 410-386-2654. They should give your name and the judge's name presiding over the case for which you had to report. We will then take care of the emergency immediately.

21. What information about me will be given to the attorneys who are picking the jury?

Before jury selection begins, the attorneys are given your name, age, occupation, employer, the highest level of education you've achieved, your marital status, and your spouse's occupation. If you are selected to serve on the jury, this information is used to determine if you can be fair to both sides.

22. What should I wear?

Be comfortable.

Generally, no shorts, tee shirts with logos, or halter tops are permitted.

23. When can I expect an answer to my request for excusal or postponement of my jury duty?

Please allow four to five weeks. Any requests received the week prior to your term may not be answered before your term begins. If you have not received an answer from the Jury Commissioner's office, do not assume you have been excused.

More Questions?

Contact the Jury Commissioner's office at 410-386-2093 and then press 0. However, any requests to be excused or postponed MUST be submitted in writing along with your completed Juror Qualification Form.

AFTER JURY SERVICE

THANK YOU!

The judges and staff at the Carroll County Circuit Court would like to thank you for serving as a juror. We know that while jury service is a rewarding experience, it is also quite demanding. Making decisions takes time, thought, and energy. Your participation in the jury-trial process is very important and greatly appreciated.

Feeling some anxiety after jury service is natural. Not every juror feels anxiety or increased stress; however, if you do, it is helpful to be aware of the symptoms. If you can identify your symptoms and understand why you are having them, you can better control them or eliminate them.

Some Signs & Symptoms of Distress

Some signs of temporary distress following jury service may be one or more of the following: anxiety; sleep or appetite changes; moodiness; physical problems such as headache or upset stomach; second guessing your verdict; feeling guilty; fear; trouble dealing with issues or topics related to the case; a desire to be alone; and decreased concentration or memory problems.

Coping Techniques

Remember you are having a natural response to an unusual experience. Here are a few tips you might want to use:

- Before you leave the courthouse, ask some of your fellow jurors if you can contact them. Sometimes it is helpful to talk to people who went through the same experience as you. Remember you were part of a group and you are not alone.
- Stick to your normal, daily routines. It is important to return to your regular schedule. Do not isolate yourself. Stay involved with your activities, friends, and family.

- Cut down on alcohol, caffeine and nicotine. These substances can increase anxiety, fatigue, and make sleep problems worse.
- Drink lots of water. Some of the physical symptoms you may be feeling may be due to dehydration.
- Relax with deep breathing. Find a quiet place where you will not be disturbed. Sit in a straight-backed chair with your feet flat on the floor and your hands at your sides. Breathe slowly and naturally and focus on a short phrase or word that makes you feel a sense of peace and calm. Repeat the word or phrase each time you exhale. Don't worry about whether you are doing it right or wrong. Just keep going and if you get distracted, simply return to your word or phrase and start breathing again. Practicing deep breathing right before bed may also help with any sleep problems.
- Exercise. Exercise reduces muscle tension, uses up energy, lowers blood pressure, and helps you clear your mind of worrying thoughts and anxieties.

Further Assistance

If signs of distress persist for more than two weeks after your jury service has ended, you may wish to contact your doctor or a counselor.

More Thoughts

- Jury service is the responsibility and right of all Carroll County citizens and you have provided an important service to the community.
- Your jury service is over. It is important for you to get back into your regular routine.
- Resist negative thoughts about the verdict. No matter what others think about the verdict, your opinion is the only one that matters.
- If you are fearful of retaliation or if you are threatened after the trial, notify your local law enforcement agency immediately.
