

Feesersburg

Feesersburg is a small Village located on Middleburg Road in western Carroll County. Beginning where the fields of the Bowling Brook Country Inn end, Feesersburg continues for approximately 0.3 miles on Middleburg Road. Feesersburg contains historic buildings.

The Village has been designated as a water/ sewer problem area by the Carroll County Health Department.

The Village's businesses include Oak Corner Cupboard Antiques and Bostian's Garage. Brookfield Manor, a large white home that has been converted to an assisted living care home, is located at the western end of the Village.

The rest of the buildings are characteristically older homes preserved with white siding, with newer development on Bucher John Road.

The land surrounding Feesersburg is mainly cornfields with some wooded areas. The Village is surrounded on three sides by Agricultural Land Preservation districts or easements.

The Village of Feesersburg

