Holiday teas scheduled at Farm Museum

October 26, 2009 – The Carroll County Farm Museum cordially invites you to take a break in the midst of all the holiday preparations and treat yourself to a special holiday tea. Gather with family and friends in the relaxing atmosphere of the Carroll Tea Room. The teas are held in conjunction with the museum's 2009 Holiday Tour, "A Victorian Storybook Christmas." Two seatings are offered at noon and 2 p.m. on Dec. 8, 9, 10 and 15, 16, 17. Register early so you get the date and time you prefer.

The cost is $15 per person and includes tea, tea sandwiches, sweet treats, and a guided farmhouse tour. Costumed guides will lead you through the six exhibit rooms decorated with vignettes from Beatrix Potter's Peter Rabbit, Mark Twain's Huckleberry Finn & Tom Sawyer, Treasure Island, Goldilocks & the Three Bears, Alice in Wonderland, and The Night Before Christmas. The museum's gift shop will be open after each tea for your shopping convenience. The shop is decorated for the holidays and stocked with all kinds of gift items and décor, toys, books, collectibles and much more. The Farm Museum's 2009 collectible holiday ornament will be available to purchase.

Advance registration and pre-payment is required. For additional information, directions to the Farm Museum, or to register for a tea, call the museum at 410-386-3880.
