ALLENBERRY PLAYHOUSE & BRUNCH

#19BT01 Saturday, April 6, 9:45am-5:45pm

Join our small group as we take a van trip to Boiling Springs, PA to enjoy brunch and a 2pm matinee of "The Odd Couple." Our first stop will be the historic Boiling Springs Tavern for a leisurely brunch (meal fee is on your own). The tavern serves classic American fare with a modern twist including steak, chicken, pork, seafood and pasta; they have an extensive wine list at reasonable prices, offer Pennsylvania microbrews, and you can round off your meal with one of their wonderful homemade desserts. Our group will then re-board the van heading just minutes down the road to The Playhouse at Allenberry for the show. "This classic comedy discovers what happens when persons of opposite personalities and lifestyles become unlikely roommates. Prolific American playwright Neil Simon brought slovenly Oscar Madison and fastidious Felix Ungar to the stage in 1965, and won the Tony for Best Author of a Play. The Odd Couple went on to become a film and a successful television series. Hilarity results when the worlds of these endearing characters collide!" Invite a friend or two to join the trip with you for a wonderful spring Saturday treat! Seating is limited – register today! Includes van transportation and matinee performance.
