Danielle Yates Named Acting Director of Citizen Services

Westminster, Tuesday, November 10, 2015 – The Board of County Commissioners is happy to announce that Danielle Yates has been named the Acting Director of Citizen Services.

Danielle has been with Carroll County since January of 2012, when she began her career as a Grants Analyst for Emergency Management. In May of 2012, Danielle transitioned to the Bureau of Aging and Disabilities as the Fiscal Supervisor. When duties expanded to include those of Housing Fiscal Manager, Danielle became the Fiscal Supervisor for Citizen Services in January 2014. She has carried oversight for the Senior Inclusion Program since 2013.

Danielle assumes responsibility for Citizen Services while Patty Whitson is on an extended leave of absence. County Administrator Roberta Windham noted, "These transitions can be challenging, but the Board of County Commissioners and I have every confidence in Danielle and the entire staff of Citizens Services. We know that they and Danielle will continue to perform to the high standards they have shown over the years, providing the necessary services to some of the most vulnerable people in Carroll County."
