Carroll 101 Class Offered at Carroll Community College

Westminster, MD, Monday, December 3, 2018 – This spring, Carroll County Government is partnering with Carroll Community College to present a course entitled Carroll 101.

The non-credit class, held at Carroll Community College, will include five evening sessions with an agenda which promotes learning everything citizens wanted to know about local government but were afraid to ask. The fast moving and informative curriculum will focus on major areas of Carroll County Government including presentations by the Board of County Commissioners, Department Directors, Sheriff DeWees and State's Attorney DeLeonardo. Topics will include economic development, emergency services, land and resource management and public works. Selected sessions may include interactive portions allowing citizens to receive a first-hand look at several allied agency facilities and their operations.

The class is five Wednesday evenings, February 13, 2019 – March 13, 2019 at the Washington Road Campus. Participants can register today online, in person at the community college, or by phone 410-386-8100. The class is listed in the new Winter/Spring catalog or available online at <http://carroll-community-college.dcatalog.com/v/Current-Schedule/#page=66>.

If you are interested in learning about the ins and outs of your local government, sign up today!
