WINNER OF THE 2016 SUMMER ADVENTURE CELEBRATING AMERICA PROGRAM CHOSEN

Wednesday, September 21, 2016, Westminster, MD – Celebrating America partners: Carroll County Commissioners Office, Carroll County Public Library (CCPL), Union Mills Homestead, and Carroll Technology Council (CTC) ended the 2016 Celebrating America Summer Adventures program with their annual Celebrating America Ice Cream Social and grand prize drawing at the Union Mills Homestead.

Commissioner Dennis Frazier, District 3, conducted the grand prize drawing of an Ematic 10 Quad Core TABLET with Windows, donated by CTC. The Grand Prize winner was Alana Williams, a 9th Grader at Winters Mill High School. All completers of the Summer Adventure Program received books from CCPL, a one year Family Pass to the Carroll County Farm Museum, and a Celebrating America medal.

Each year 1st through 9th graders are encouraged to discover Carroll County by participating in the Celebrating America Summer Adventure. To complete the Adventure they must visit at least 13 of the different sites listed in the "Summer Adventures Passport". At each site, a photo must be taken of them next to the site's sign or building to show that they visited. After completing the Adventure, the photos and Passport must be taken to the nearest Carroll County Public Library for certification. At the end of the summer, participants who've
