Deputy Director of Public Works Appointed

Westminster, Wednesday, September 30, 2015 – David P. Reese, Sr. has been appointed the Deputy Director of Public Works. With 27 ½ years of experience, Dave is no stranger to Carroll County service. He began his county career in the Roads Department eventually becoming an Area Road Chief from there he moved to Fleet Management rising to the level of Bureau Chief, before becoming Deputy Director.

Dave has attended both Towson University and Carroll Community College to continue his education in management. He brings to Public Works his expertise in the areas of roadwork and transportation. An accomplished leader in Lean in the Workplace, Dave has implemented numerous cost saving measures for the county.

Dave is eager to assume his new duties. "With my knowledge of all aspects of Roads and Transportation, I am excited to take on a new role in my career to help the citizens of Carroll County."
