Commissioner Wantz Hosting New Television Program

Westminster, Monday, April 27, 2016- Have you ever wondered what technology is inside a Carroll County Sheriff's vehicle or what exactly is the Carroll County Public Network? There is a new television program airing just for you on Sunday, May 1, 2016 on Comcast Channel 24 starting at 8pm. "Keeping it Real in Carroll County" is a program hosted by Commissioner Stephen Wantz that sheds light on many of the great things that happen in Carroll County, MD.

Commissioner Wantz stated "We want to bring attention to the wonderful services and businesses here, but also learn about the people in Carroll County, MD that are doing great things. The public doesn't always have the opportunity to see what's going on behind the scenes, not just in Carroll County Government, but all around our great county."

If you don't have Comcast cable, you still have the opportunity to view this informing yet entertaining program. You can find the program on the County's Meeting Portal and the County's YouTube Channel. Look for a new episode every Sunday night starting Sunday, May 1, 2016. Also, sign up for our GovDelivery service by looking for "Subscribe to this Page" on the county website at cgcovernment.carr.org. Look under County News for Live & archived video of meetings to sign up for updates.
