Long-Term Advisory Council to Present Recommendations

Westminster, MD, Tuesday, November 13, 2018 – The Long-Term Advisory Council will present recommendations to the Board of County Commissioners at 6 PM on Nov. 27, 2018 in Room K-100 Carroll Community College, 1601 Washington Road, Westminster.

The Council was established to assist the Commissioners in planning for future needs of the county. To that end, the Commissioners established a Long-Term Advisory Council whose purpose is to present recommendations to the Commissioners for use in developing long-term goals and objectives for the county.

The event is open to the public.

A recording of the meeting will be archived for viewing on the county meeting portal.
