FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BERC seeking employers for Fall Job Fair

Westminster, MD – September 17th, 2015 - The Carroll County Business & Employment Resource Center (BERC) is hosting a Fall Job Fair on Tuesday, October 20, 2015 from 9:00 am – 1:00 pm at 224 North Center Street. “The Carroll County unemployment rate has been falling so it may be more challenging for businesses to find workers for seasonal work and permanent positions. We are offering this no-cost job fair as our way of helping the local business community; hundreds of job seekers typically attend this annual event and many great job matches are made.” said BERC Manager Denise Rickell.

BERC is a local employment and training resource that provides complimentary recruitment, retraining, and retention programs. BERC helps businesses find the most qualified employees by posting jobs at the center and on the Maryland Workforce Exchange, assessing candidates using the nationally recognized program - Prove It!, offering skills training, and hosting on-site job fairs. Job seekers also receive job search assistance and training information at BERC.

At the Fall Job Fair, businesses are provided with a recruitment table and assistance in managing applicant flow. BERC personnel will be on hand to assist job seekers. Employers are asked to provide information in advance about the types and number of positions available. Veteran job candidates will also be in attendance.

Businesses that are actively recruiting to fill open positions are encouraged to contact Jennifer Maffucci at 410-386-2521 to reserve a spot as space is limited.
