Recreation and Parks Celebrates National Volunteer Week

National Volunteer Week occurs April 15 – 21, 2018 and celebrates the many important contributions volunteers make to their communities each year. Carroll County Department of Recreation and Parks will be celebrating this event by providing their volunteers with free admission to Piney Run Park on Saturday, April 21, 2018. To receive free admission, volunteers may simply show their Recreation and Parks issued volunteer ID badges or provide their name and the recreation council or park where they serve.

Last year, Carroll County utilized services of 8,830 volunteers saving taxpayers thousands of dollars. These volunteers raised and spent over $5.2 million in support of their programs and contributed service hours valued at $13.5 million for a total community contribution of $18.7 million. This total represents a rate of $7.30 for every dollar in the approved Recreation and Parks operating budget.

The Board of Carroll County Commissioners offers many recreational opportunities through its Department of Recreation and Parks. For more information, please visit www.ccrecpark.org or call 410-386-2103.
