Ask questions, give comments online about recycling

June 3, 2009 – A new feature has been added to Carroll County Government’s recycling web page.

Questions and comments about our recycling program can now be asked online. The new button, which can be found on the left side of the screen, allows you to enter your question, request a response, and provide comments about our recycling efforts. Simply fill in the form and click on the submit button.

The Recycling Office welcomes your comments, suggestions or questions about our programs and activities. The web site address is <http://ccgovernment.carr.org/ccg/recycle>.
