Deer Park Road Bridge closed for replacement

October 13, 2009 –Deer Park Road Bridge spanning Liberty Reservoir has been closed to traffic as the City of Baltimore Department of Transportation replaces the structure. The bridge, also known as Nicodemus Road Bridge, crosses from Carroll County into Baltimore County. The reservoir is owned by the City of Baltimore. The $8.2 million project includes the demolition of the existing bridge, a new five-span continuous concrete structure, new sidewalks, safety fencing, ornamental railings and reconstructed roadway approaches.

Throughout the duration of this project, the bridge will be closed with detours in effect. The bridge was closed to through traffic Monday. Variable message signs have been placed in the area to alert motorists of the closure. Construction of the new bridge is expected to be complete in the fall of 2011.

Detours:

Eastbound Deer Park Road traffic will be detoured north on Gamber Road (Route 91), east on Westminster Pike (Route 140), south on Ivy Mill Road to Nicodemus Road.

Westbound Nicodemus Road traffic will be detoured north on Ivy Mill Road, west on Westminster Pike, south on Gamber Road to Deer Park Road.
