County to host tree-lighting ceremony

November 20, 2009 – Residents can kick off the holiday season with music and treats during the annual Carroll County Tree-Lighting Ceremony, slated for 6 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 1, in front of the County Office Building. The event will feature the Fifth Grade Band and Orchestra from Westminster Elementary School, The Voices community ensemble from Westminster, and the Westminster Trombone Choir. A visit by Mr. and Mrs. Claus is planned. Cookies will be donated by residents of Westminster Ridge Retirement Community. This year, because of the labor costs associated with cutting down an evergreen, lights will be hung instead on a holly tree that grows outside the County Office Building.
