

South Branch Tree Plantings

Location

These plantings are located on private residential properties within the South Branch Patapsco watershed.

Description

Four residential tree plantings totaling 9.43 acres were completed in fall 2014. The plantings were established to address inadequate stream buffer and were funded by the Department of Natural Resources' (DNR) Governor O'Malley's Stream Restoration grant.

Project Engineer

N/A

Contractor

Aspen Landscape Contractors, Inc.

Project Budget

$56,484

Project Timeline

Anticipated to be completed by fall 2017.

Updates

One year of maintenance has been completed and was funded by the DNR grant. The following two years of maintenance will be funded by the County.