“Chesapeake Beach teen arrested for shoplifting at Carrolltown Mall”

Eldersburg, Carroll County, Maryland, July 14, 2009 ---- Dustin James Jablonski aged 18 of Chesapeake Beach, Maryland was arrested at approximately 5:20 p.m. yesterday by Deputy Doug Reese at the K-Mart Department Store in the Carrolltown Mall, 6400 Ridge Road after K-Mart employee's observed him leaving the store with three sets of cubic zirconium earrings without paying for them. Employees had become suspicious after watching Jablonski return an earring box to its shelf - empty. The $10 earrings were recovered from his right front pants pocket.

During their investigation, Jablonski refused to identify himself or provide Sheriff's Deputies with an address of residence. Consequently, Jablonski was transported to Carroll County Central Booking where he was identified using the Maryland Automated Fingerprint Identification System (MAFIS), and charged by Deputy Reese with Theft less than $500. He was released on personal recognizance following a bail review before the District Court Commissioner.
